NORMAL FUND BROKE; HOLD UP TEACHERS PAY

Secretary Merlin Hall Tells School Secretary Cash is Low

$2,241 IS ON HAND

Salary Roll Will Not be Met Until After Christmas Because of Condition

There will be a delay in the payment of the bills and Christmas salaries of the nine normal schools of the state owing to the exhaustion of the normal school fund. This matter was brought to the attention of Secretary William Kittle by Secretary of State Merlin Hall today. As soon as the general fund has been sufficiently replenished, money will be loaned to the normal fund to make the payments.

"I regret to state that the condition of the normal school fund is such that we shall be unable to audit such accounts beyond the amount of $2,241.33, which is now the balance in the normal fund income," says Secretary of State Hall in reply to the request that the payrolls of the nine normal schools be audited at once.

Low Wages First.
"Agreeable to your suggestion, we shall audit the accounts of those on the payroll at the lowest rate of wages so far as the funds will permit, making the distribution among the several schools so far as practicable."

"The condition of the general fund at this time is not such as to permit a transfer of funds for normal school purposes. The balance in the general fund on this date is $27,339.82. There are in the general fund accounts brought in from the general fund in the amount of $206,100, which leaves a balance of approximately 121,469. This amount will be required to meet previously received for audit from the general fund during the current month."

Need of $71,911

"The total amount of the normal school pay rolls submitted for audit is $33,000.28; the amount of accounts your board and which are also being held for lack of funds is $5,851.89 making a total of $71,911.17. It is therefore apparent that the condition of the general fund will not permit such a transfer of funds as would be necessary to meet these accounts."

"It is very probable that the situation will be relieved soon after the first of the year, when the general fund will be augmented by receipts from several sources."

As soon as the condition of the fund becomes such that a transfer may be made, I shall be pleased to request the governor's approval of a loan sufficient to cover current expenses."

LOCAL FIREMEN WON'T KNIT-BUSY

Chief Keyl Says All Efforts Are Now on Plan for Christmas

"Save I advance of firemen learning to knit," said Chief W. Keyl, chief of the Madison fire department, "but we don't have time to do any knitting. There have been twenty-four fires already this month and thirty in November."

"The answer to the suggestion that Madison might follow the example of other cities in having firemen knit for the poor is now busy with preparations for its seventh annual Christmas party for poor children of Madison. Last year over two thousand children were entertained by the firemen, and it is hoped that even more will come this Christmas."

The party is held on Christmas day in the second session, 20 South Webster street. A large Christmas tree is here lighted at day.

Boxes of goods, donated by Madison merchants, will be presented to the children, besides gifts of gloves, mittens and stockings. Apples, oranges, and nuts will also be given them. A volunteer orchestra will furnish a program throughout the day.

REAPPOINTMENT OF MEYER IS PRAISED

Farmer Member of University Staff Rechosen to Federal Rate Board

That the reappointment of Prof. B. H. Meyer, formerly of Madison, to the interstate commerce commission is a tribute to his ability and to the training he received at the University of Wisconsin is the opinion expressed by many at the university and capital. Not only was Prof. Meyer well known among the students at the university but his first work on the railroad commission attracted wide attention. Dr. Meyer, native of Wisconsin, was professor of economics and railroad administration in the University of Wisconsin until the establishment of the state railroad commission in 1905, when he was appointed a member of that body by Gov. La Follette. Dr. Meyer served on the state board until appointed to the interstate commerce commission by President Taft. Nearly every summer Prof. Meyer came to Wisconsin to spend his summer in the north Wisconsin woods. President Wilson has just announced his reappointment.

PORTUGAL IS LATEST EUROPEAN NATION IN WHICH REVOLUTIONISTS SEEK TO OVERTHROW GOVERNMENT

Portugal, scene of more revolutions than any other country in Europe, is in the throes of another, according to meager dispatches from Oporto and Lisbon, the capital.

It is said that a rebellion led by Dr. Sidonio Paes, former Portuguese minister to Germany, and Colonels Soares Branco and Alves Rodrigues has been successful. Paes being named president of the provisional government.

Senior Bernardino Machado was elected president of the Portuguese republic in 1915. He had been premier and minister of the interior. He took the oath of office for a four-year term October 5, 1915.

Alfonso Costa, premier, who is reported to be a captive of the revolutionists at Guarda, is a veteran of revolutions, having been an active figure in the struggles of the past. At one time a few years ago a report that he had been assassinated was spread over Europe.

Second Lieutenant Commissions to be Awarded Successful Candidates

The University of Wisconsin's quota of twenty-four men to the third of the training camp which will open January 5 at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., has been announced by Major A. R. Kerwin, commandant of the military department.

Three hundred graduates and undergraduates made application for the camp. The selection was made by a point system, based upon the applicant's scholastic and military record, while attending the university, and upon his ability for leadership, as shown by this record since leaving school.

Only ten per cent of the men admitted to the third camp will be college men as this training session was instituted primarily for men now in the service who desired an advance.

Four Madison boys were successful candidates. They are: Russell Tokemeyer, William C. Hyde, Louis E. Reber, and Robert E. Bondi, star varsity football halfback.

A letter commendatory to Wisconsin has been received by Major A. R. Kerwin from Commandant Mitchell of Indiana university, where four Wisconsin men reported for examination in accordance with requirements to report to the nearest university or college. These four men received higher averages than those from any other schools.

Wisconsin graduates and undergraduates assigned to the camp are: Beach, Rutan, W. W. Newcastle, Ind. Bernhardt, Otto H. Lancaster, Benish, George, Eau Claire. Bondi, Robert E., Madison. $55,000 HOUSE OF PSI UPSILON RUINED BY FIRE

Overheated Furnace Pipes Start Early Morning Conflagration

BURNS FOR FOUR HOURS

Men Leave Burning Structure in Scanty Attire Without Panic

The $55,000 fraternity house of the Psi Upsilon fraternity, erected three years ago, was totally destroyed by fire from overheated furnace pipes early this morning. Four hours after the blaze was discovered nothing remained of the structure but the limestone and stucco walls.

All the furniture and personal effects of the twenty-eight members was lost, although insurance will cover the greater part of the damage.

The fire was discovered at 3:45 o'clock by John Hamlin of Lull, Minn., who dreamed that he was on fire and awakened. He found his room filled with smoke and hurried down stairs and to find the chapter room ablaze.

Got Men Up.

Hamlin and Russell Jones, of Oak Park, got the men up, and without any panic, the boys left the building with such clothes as they were able to gather in their hasty exit. At first the men believed that they would be able to extinguish the blaze themselves, but at 4 o'clock a general alarm was sounded, and the fire department called.

Quite a little time was lost in getting the auto trucks down the steep grade to the corner between the burning structure and the Alpha Tau Omega house, directly opposite. Six lines were brought to play upon the blaze, four of them being handled by the fraternity boys, who made a heroic attempt to save the house.

A strong north wind swept across Lake Mendota, fanned the fire. The smoke billowed up harmlessly on the night sky. In the year of the house, no time was there great damage, the blaze spreading to the surrounding properties.

One of the boys with clothing, shelter, and others were taken by Prof. Carl Russell Fisher, an entire student quarter came to the blaze and to lend assistance. The cold wind from the lake soon drove them back to their rooms. Many were unable to enter the fraternity house, but the boys' personal effects, but the blaze on the lower floor, and on the way to the top floor.

Less than an hour and they slowly burned down to the basement. The walls stood intact, however, and did not endanger the fire-fighters.

Loss is $55,000.

The members of the chapter this morning presented a petition to Dean of Men S. H. Goodnight asking permission to go home now on their Christmas vacations.

The Psi Upsilon house was built in 1915, and occupied early in 1914. It was a 3-story building of limestone and stucco, and was valued at $55,000. One of the humorous touches of the configuration was the determination of Ed Williams, a junior engineer of Milwaukee, to save something out of his room. In the excitement he took a slide rule and a fifty cent piece with him.

FRENCH JOURNALISTS VISIT AMERICAN TROOPS

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Thursday, Dec. 13.—A number of well known war correspondents of important French newspapers after visiting the American troops. After interviewing General Pershing, who expressed to them his confidence in the American army, the journalists summarized their impressions in the following statement:

"We have come to a striking realization of American power. We have the fullest confidence in the aid which America's army will render us and we are more than ever convinced of victory. We have been struck particularly by the brotherhood in arms of Americans and Frenchmen, and nothing rejoices us more than the vigor, high spirits and enthusiasm of our allies from overseas."

FARMER LOST LIFE IN MISSISSIPPI RIVER

Richmond, Minn., Dec. 13.—David Egan, wealthy farmer, living near here who disappeared Tuesday evening, is believed to have drowned in crossing the Mississippi river on the ice. He left a hotel in Tempepauca at 11 o'clock that night and has not been seen since.

SUMMARY OF THE WAR

(By the Associated Press.)

Bolshevik forces, apparently have been successful in the first clashes with the counter revolutionists and it is reported they have captured the towns of Tambov and Kaluga. General Kaledine is besieging Rostov-on-the-Don, the largest city in the Don province, and heavy fighting has been in progress there since Sunday.

Tamanovka is near Bielorod, 350 miles south of Moscow, and near where the forces of General Korniloff, also a counter revolutionist, are reported to have been engaged in a heavy battle with the Bolsheviks. One report said Korniloff had been defeated and wounded while another says he has been victorious.

Severe fighting has been going on in and around Rostov, which is only 25 miles northwest of Novo Tcherkassk. The Don Cossack capital, Kaledine's troops, besieged the city while Cossack forces within Rostov attacked the Bolsheviks. The losses are reported to have been heavy on both sides.

Artillery and local infantry fighting has been in progress on the western front, to which the Germans are still rushing troops and supplies. The enemy has attempted no further massed attacks since Wednesday.

German artillery has been especially active south of the Scarpe, in the Arras area, and northeast of Ypres, in Flanders.

East of the Brenne river, on the northern Italian front, there has been further bitter fighting. Austro-German troops, reinforced by fresh reserves, attacked the Italian positions in valleys descending toward the river from the Col Delta Beretta region. Italian resistance held the attackers and forced them to give up the effort after having suffered heavy losses.

German bombs have killed a number of American railway engineers in a town behind the British front. In another town a German bomb fell in a street through which American troops were marching. Although the missile fell very close, no injuries resulted.

Official announcement is made by the Bolshevik government at Petrograd that the Russian delegates to the armistice conference now in progress at Brest-Litovsk are empowered to begin peace negotiations with the Central powers if an armistice is signed.

Meanwhile the struggle for power in interior Russia is growing more bitter. Advantages in the civil warfare are claimed by both sides. The Bolsheviks assert success in the fighting with General Kaledine's Cossacks in the vicinity of Bielorod, some 350 miles south of Moscow, while the Cossacks are reported victorious at Rostov-on-the-Don, capturing the city and forcing the Bolshevik troops to retreat across the Don.

Attention is attracted by the fact that the German press is being permitted to predict a German offensive on the western front, a rather unusual prelude to any new aggressive move by the Germans, especially immediately preceding one.

An artillery action, it is to be noted, has broken out in the Champagne, which has been pointed to as one field where the Germans might attempt an offensive in an effort to break through in the direction of Paris.

Of actual infantry fighting there has been little in the last 24 hours. London announces that the British were successful in improving their position as the result of their local operation in the Cambrai area, east of Bullecourt. Berlin declares the British were beaten back in an attack at this point.

DISMISS COURT SUGAR FAMINE WORK UNTIL LOCAL TO EAST JANUARY 12 SAYS MAGNATE

First Questionnaires to be Mailed Drafted Men on Sunday

To permit Madison attorneys ample time in which to assist men eligible for military service in filling out the questionnaires to be sent out by the draft board, Municipal Judge A. C. Hoppmann and Circuit Judge E. Ray Stevens today agreed to postpone all work in both courts until January 12.

Because much of his work demands immediate attention, County Judge A. G. Zimmerman will not be able to suspend his schedules entirely, but will do so whenever possible.

The jurists have also agreed to turn over their court rooms during that time to attorneys as headquarters for advising registered men in filling out the 16-page questionnaire.

This, in effect, was the message which was sent to Burr W. Jones, head of the legal advisory board for Dane county this afternoon.

Incidentally men who receive the questionnaires are urged to visit the court house and receive the advice of attorneys as to the details of answering the questions, the lawyers having made a study of what is at best, a complicated task. The services of the attorney costs the man of draft age nothing.

The mailing of the questionnaires will be started in Dane county Saturday and the registrants are permitted seven days to fill them out and return, exclusive of that produced by Germany, her allies and Russia, at 1,250,000 tons in excess of the amount produced in the same territory last year.

Troitzky Says Russian Delegates May Enter Into Peace Negotiations

BULLETIN.

(By the Associated Press.)
LONDON, Dec. 14.—Bolshevik troops have occupied Tambovka and Kaluga, according to a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd.

(By the Associated Press.)

PETROGRAD, Wednesday, Dec. 13.—Bolshevik delegates to the constituent assembly are hastening toward Petrograd from all parts of Russia, in response to an appeal from their headquarters here. None of the Bolsheviks attended the preliminary organizational meeting of the assembly yesterday. It is believed they are holding off until control is assured by sheer force of numbers.

The preliminary meeting was attended by about seventy delegates, mostly socialists and revolutionists. Mayor Schridder's speech in which he declared that the assembly had been opened, but the delegates later compromised by adopting a resolution declaring that the assembly would have all power when it was legally opened, which, according to their view, would be when a quorum, as fixed by the old constitution, should be present. It was determined to hold sessions daily in the meantime.

The Bolshevik foreign minister, according to a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd, announces that it is an armistice for the eastern front is signed at Brest-Litovsk, the Russian delegates are empowered to enter into peace negotiations.

Release German Civilians.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The Russian authorities have ordered the release of all civilian German prisoners in exchange for 4,000 Russian officers in German prisons, according to a dispatch from Hapsburg, printed in Stockholm and forwarded to the Morning Post.

It is reported reliably, the dispatch adds, that Russian troops have been ordered to evacuate Finland. The commander of the fortifications at Sveaborg is said to have acknowledged officially the independence of Finland.

NEW BUILDINGS AT CAMP GRANT

Additions Are Planned by War Department; Will Cost $50,000

(By the Associated Press.)
ROCKFORD, Ill., Dec. 14.—For additional buildings for the hospital at Camp Grant and for barracks for some of the last buildings have been approved by war department. Work on the structures will be started soon; the expenditure will be approximately $50,000. Two additional barracks will be erected, and a new building for women nurses' quarters.

SIGN PETITION FOR FIRE MARSHAL

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Dec. 14.—A petition, said to contain names of prominent business men, for the Fire Marshal Charles Doll, was filed with the marshal today. It came as a sequel to a list of twenty firemen asking the dismissal of Doll.

BRITISH PROBE REVERSE CAUSE

Bonar Law Says Government Will Gather Data on Cambrai Campaign

HARG IS TO REPORT

Chancellor Declares Rumors Concerning Operations Have Been Exaggerated

[By The Associated Press.]
LONDON, Dec. 13.—The British government will investigate the reasons for the British reverse on the southern end of the Cambrai salient. This was the assurance given by Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, in answering criticism of military operations in the house of commons today. Mr. Bonar Law said that rumors concerning the Cambrai operations were exaggerated. Early in the morning Mr. Bonar Law said, the Germans made different attacks upon the British Cambrai salient. The smallest of these attacks was on the part of the front where, up to the present, the Germans were able to break through. The other two attacks by larger forces were repelled with great loss to the enemy. The chancellor said the first thing to do was to find out what had happened. Mr. Bonar Law said a full inquiry would be held and the government would be satisfied that proper action would be taken as a result of it. Actions of this kind, he declared, were inevitable in war. Even surprises on a safety morning might happen for which no blame could be attached to anyone.

RED CROSS WORK OF U. S. GREAT

Has Accomplished Much in Brief Time Country
Has Been in War

ALL SOLDIERS BENEFITED

Work Not Confined to Our Men But to Those of Other Countries

The close approach of the week's drive for Red Cross membership in Madison and throughout the three counties, composing the Madison chapter makes timely a review of some of the accomplishments already achieved by this great volunteer organization in brief time our country has been engaged in war. This splendidly organized machine is first of all helping to care for the wounded in the great war—for the boys in the American army and for their allies who speak other tongues. It is doing this by maintaining, in whole or in part, five hospitals in France and four in England; by supplying to 3,000 military hospitals in France surgical dressings, drugs, apparatus and other medical supplies, gathered from all over the United States and held in great warehouses in France for use as needed. Thirteen million surgical dressings, hospital articles and garments have been shipped abroad by the American Red Cross since April 1, 1917.

Remembers Family at Home

The Red Cross has organized chapters in every state for home service to the families of American soldiers and sailors, supplementing government grants of money by all the friendly assistance which intelligent and sympathetic workers can provide. Similarly it has appropriated $1,000,000 for relief of sick French soldiers and their families. One of the greatest services that the Red Cross can render in this war is to look after the families at home. A man will be a better fighter at the front when he knows that his family is being properly cared for at home.

The American Red Cross has gone speedily to the relief of Italy with three-quarters of a million dollars for relief and nearly fifty carloads of needed supplies. Two days after the call for help the Red Cross had 45 carloads of supplies in Italy.

Aid for Smaller Allies

It is the same story in other distressed regions in the war-torn continent of Europe. Our Red Cross has carried aid to Russia and Belgium, and is helping to feed and clothe the miserable remnants of Serbia. It is sending more than a million dollars' worth of necessary supplies to Roumania, where soldiers' wounds have been treated with sawdust for lack of dressings. As the war goes on there will be more men at the front; more men at the front will mean more wounded; more wounded men will mean more hospitals, more ambulances, more of everything that will help save our men and bring them home to their families.

Furthermore the distress and sufferings while the war has brought to the women and children, the infirm and crippled among the civilized population of our allies is increasing in geometric ratio as the war goes on. Every additional month makes it harder for France to care for her own civilians. Every week and every day lessens the resistance of those behind the lines on whom the war lays so heavy a burden.

Saving Lives Ultimate End

Every time the Red Cross helps to save the life of a wounded soldier at the front, it helps to save two men—the man who was wounded and the man who would have had to take his place; and the man who would ultimately have to take his place is an American.

Every time the Red Cross saves a starving baby in Belgium, or France, or Roumania, it is helping to give a baby that will help to build up the world again after the war. And it is just as much a tragedy for a baby to starve in France, or Belgium, or Roumania, as for a baby to starve in our own home.

These are the kind of considerations

Cyril Drew, age 20, of Waterloo, Wis., died at the General hospital at 5 o'clock this morning from peritonitis. He had been recently operated upon for appendicitis.

Mr. Drew was the son of Herbert W. and Mollie Drew of Waterloo, and a graduate of the High School with the 1916 class. Since leaving school he has been in business at Edgerton.

He is survived by his mother and father and two sisters, Virginia and Helen. He was also a cousin of Walter Drew, assistant attorney general, of Madison. The remains were taken to the home at Waterloo today for burial.

ORE SHIPPING CLOSING

AT ESCANABA FOR SEASON

[By Associated Press.]
ESCANABA, Mich., Dec. 13.—The last boat load of ore of the season left the northwestern docks late yesterday and navigation is closed as far as ore shipping is concerned.

MEYERS TRANSFERRED.

Lieut. Irving A. Myers, M. D., of Cottage Grove, who joined the Medical Reserve corps several months ago, has been transferred from Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, to Camp Custer as a member of the board for examination for tuberculosis.

That impel the local Red Cross workers to appeal to citizens of Madison to meet this extraordinary crisis. The campaign will be wound up in one week beginning next Monday.

SUBMARINE IS AGAIN REVIVED

Big Campaign Started to Incline England Toward Peace

AID LAND FORCES

British Authorities Claim That Both Plans Have Signally Failed

[By The Associated Press.]
LONDON, Dec. 13.—When the Associated Press inquired of high naval authority today "if the anti-submarine war was going well and what was the reason for the high rate of sinking in the past three weeks," the answer was: "The enemy has had more submarines at work. He has actually been the greatest possible magnitude in an effort to reinforce his offensive on land. He is trying to bring off a coup which will incline us to peace."

"He has failed signally on sea, on land, and he has had to pay a heavy price. Our counter measures are meeting with increased success."

"The submarine menace in my opinion, is held but not yet mastered," said Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the admiralty in the house of commons today. "Our ship building is not yet replacing our losses."

ARRESTED ON ASSAULT CHARGE; ENTERS PLEA NOT GUILTY

R. W. Short was arrested yesterday afternoon on an assault and battery charge preferred by Miss Vera Boyle. Miss Boyle alleges Short handled her roughly following a dispute over the opening of a door.

Arraigned before Judge A. C. Hopmann in municipal court yesterday afternoon, Short pleaded not guilty and the case was set for January 3.

President of Leland Stanford Speaks on Conservation Postage

Dr. Ray L. Wilbur, president of Leland Stanford university and chief of the conservation division of the food administration speaks tonight at 8 o'clock in Music hall.

On the subject of food administration, Dr. Wilbur is in a position to speak with the authority of the government, and promises to bring a message of importance on the nation's food supply, as he has made extensive investigations.

Before becoming president of Leland Stanford, Dr. Wilbur was professor of physiology in that institution, and is a distinguished physiologist. He is at present on indefinite leave of absence from Leland Stanford in order to serve the government.

Dr. Wilbur comes to the city under the auspices of the state food administration.

SANBORN OPENS ADVICE OFFICE

Madison Lawyer is Called Into Service at Executive Department

IS ON DRAFT WORK
Will Give Aid to New Legal Advisory Boards Opened
in All Counties

At the request of Major E. A. Fitzpatrick, John R. Sanborn of Madison has temporarily assumed duties at the executive office and is in charge of the legal advisory boards of the state. The legal advisory boards were appointed in all the states at the suggestion of the American Bar Association and Mr. Sanborn and Mr. Hayes of Milwaukee are the representatives of the American Bar Association in this state, whose services have been offered to the governor in connection with the draft. Mr. Sanborn has just been called into active duty under this offer.

Major E. A. Fitzpatrick said that it would help very much, indeed, if legal advisory boards would communicate directly with Mr. Sanborn rather than with the draft administration and can readily secure the most recent rulings and authorizations, because he now has a desk in the executive office.

LUMBERJACKS CAN'T FIT INTO U. S. ARMY UNIFORMS

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 14.—Camp Custer officers are wondering whether Uncle Sam overlooked some of Michigan's giant lumbermen when he built uniforms for select men here. There are thousands of uniforms in the store houses for men of medium and normal size but the giants are still without their service clothes. Washington has been urged to supply them.

POWERFUL RADIO STATION ERECTED BY MEN

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 14.—A powerful radio plant has been erected at Camp Custer. Although the outfit was put up for instructive purposes, the equipment has so many expert operators, that its station has been able to communicate directly with nearly every station in America. The plant was installed by men from the 31st signal battalion.

Watch The Movie Screen

You have no doubt noticed the first flash of a picture on the movie screen; notice how blurred and "out-of-focus" it was? Then you were conscious of some "adjusting being done" by the "movie operator" to make that picture clear. He was "getting the correct focus." How did he get the correct focus? He got it by adjusting the camera, that is, getting the distance of the film from the lens in the front of the camera, at exactly the proper distance, so that when the light in the back of the camera passing through the film and on through the lens made a "clear picture" on the screen.

NOW this same adjustment takes place in the human eye. If the distance of the retina, which receives the first impression of the objects which pass before the eyes, is not the proper distance from the lens, which is in the front of the eye, then the picture or impression on the retina is blurred. This blurred impression is caused by the eye being either too long or too short from the front to the back. Then what do you do? Just exactly what the "movie operator" does, make "some adjustment." How do you make this adjustment? In each eye there is a muscle called the "ciliary muscle" (or focusing muscle) and this is attached to a transparent capsule which contains the transparent, gelatin-like lens. When you look at objects at various distances you have to use this ciliary muscle to change the shape of the lens, making it flatter or fuller in curve, just the same as opticians grind lenses either flat or full, that is, convex or concave.

This adjusting is done unconsciously in a normal eye, but when an eye is not of normal shape, then the person "strains the muscles" to get clear vision. This straining of the eyes is the cause of much nervousness, headaches and other disorders and is only relieved by the proper adjustment of glasses.

GRATE CARE should be given to the selection of the man who is to examine your eyes. You can never get any more eyes, so guard them very carefully. Do not trust "just any optical man," but investigate carefully his ability to properly examine the eyes for glasses.

We invite the public to investigate thoroughly our ability to examine the eyes and fit glasses.

CAPITAL OF MADEIRA BOMBARDED BY SUB

[By the Associated Press.]
LISBON, Portugal, Dec. 13.—Funchal, capital of Madeira, has been bombarded by a German submarine. Forty shells were fired, killing or wounding a number of persons and damaging several buildings. The submarine fled on being attacked by patrol boats.

ONLY ONE FRENCH SHIP TAKEN BY SUBMARINE

[By the Associated Press.]
PARIS, Dec. 13.—In the week ending Dec. 8 only one French steamship of more than 1,000 tons was sunk by German submarines. None under that tonnage was lost.

Northern Wisconsin lands can easily produce 48,000,000 pounds of wool and 73,000,000 pounds of mutton annually. From numerous localities comes the word of new sheep ranges being started. To reverse an expression, the outlook is sheepish.—Racine Journal-News.

COURT TO GET NEW QUARTERS

Hoppman and Aides to Move to Second Floor of County Building

BOARD ON THIRD FLOOR

New Chambers to be Refinished and Lighting System Installed

The Municipal court now occupying quarters on the third floor of the county building, will move to the second and into the quarters at present used by the county board. The board will occupy the present court room. This was authorized yesterday afternoon by the board committee on buildings. Municipal Judge A. C. Hoppman has urged the change. The present county board room will be redecorated and a new lighting system installed to all the demands of the Municipal court. Judge Hoppman's private office will be directly beneath the quarters he now occupies while John T. King, clerk, and M. B. Allison, reporter, will have adjoining offices. C. C. Farrell, probation officer, will also move to the second floor. While plans are not complete, it is believed that the new quarters for the court will be ready for occupancy on or before January 1. The committee authorizing the change is composed of William Seiler, chairman; Supervisors Draher, Carville, Hamersley, Mullen, Green and Kelly.

TWO ENGINEERS WOUNDED

GEN. PERSHING REPORTS
[By The Associated Press.]
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—General Pershing has reported the names of two engineers wounded in action on Dec. 10. They are: Private Einar C. Bryn, severely wounded; Brooklyn, N. Y. Private Isidore Kanner, slightly wounded; New York City. These two engineers are believed to have been wounded in the Cambrai operations.

ASYLUM INMATE FREEZES TO DEATH

Woman Escapes From County Home and Dies in Blizzard

(Special Correspondence)
Lancaster, Wis., Dec. 13.—Harriet Hamer, age 64, an inmate of the Grant county asylum was frozen to death following her escape during the night from one of the wards. The body was found near the outskirts of Lancaster, and it is presumed that while trying to reach the city she fell to the roadside from sheer exhaustion. Mrs. Mary Cornwall, age 72, was found dead at her home in this city. Death was due to heart failure. Members of the Grant County bar association met here Wednesday on the call of the legal advisory board to exchange ideas on the answering of the questionnaires to be filed out by registered men. Attorney George B. Clementson, chairman of the board and H. E. Carthew of Lancaster, addressed the lawyers. The entire force of public school teachers in Lancaster has volunteered to aid the local board in addressing and mailing the questionnaires. Their services have cut the clerical expense of the board to a minimum. Dr. J. H. Fowler who enlisted in the Medical reserve corps recently has been called and will go to Ft. Riley Saturday afternoon. Fred Avery of Lancaster has the distinction of being the first married man in the city to enlist. Avery who is an expert mechanic was accepted in the signal corps. The county highway committee let contracts for $10,000 worth of road machinery at a meeting this week.

DEATHS FROM NATURAL CAUSES ARE REPORTED

[By The Associated Press.]
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Among the deaths from natural causes General Pershing reported today to the war department, is Private Maurice J. Carron, coast artillery corps, Dec. 9; natural causes; Mrs. Bridget Riley, sister, general delivery, Nashua, Minn. No addresses were given for Private Harold Verner, of the marines, and Jan. Hendricks, able seaman on the U. S. S. Berwind, who died of pneumonia.

FRANCIS MACMILLEN, THE VIOLINIST ENTERS SERVICE

[By The Associated Press.]
COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 14.—Francis MacMillen, noted violinist, who enlisted as an interpreter in the field service of the army recently, has been called for service abroad earlier than he expected, and will sail within a few days from an Atlantic port. To meet the government's order he cancelled forty engagements for concerts.

MEANS CASE WILL GO TO THE JURY TONIGHT

[By The Associated Press.]
CONCORD, N. C., Dec. 14.—Prospects today were that the case of Gaston B. Means, charged with the murder of Mrs. Maude A. King, would go to the jury before night. Five addresses by counsel and the judge's charge, remain to be heard.

"BABY BONDS" GO GOOD IN MADISON

War Stamp Sales Large Here Say Local Postal Authorities

"Little baby bonds!" That is what the treasury department of the United States calls the war-savings stamps that are for sale at the post offices all over the country. "The sale of war-savings stamps," say local postal authorities in Madison, "has been good and an increased sale is expected at the beginning of the new year." War-savings stamps answer the demand for a democratic form of government security, and like Liberty bonds, have behind them the entire resources of the government and the people of the United States. They give you the opportunity to lend small savings to your government at 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly.

War-savings stamps can be purchased at from $4.12 to $4.23 during 1918, the price being one cent more each successive month. On January 1, 1923, each of these stamps will be redeemed by the government for five dollars.

AWARD SCOUTS PRIZES IN VAUDEVILLE CONTEST

Twenty dollars in prizes were distributed among Boy Scouts, prizes in a vaudeville contest held at the Gem theater last night. The first prize of ten dollars went to a sketch called "Boys From Home" which Masters Marney, Coyle, Erickson, Robbins, Averley and Penhewell played the parts. O. K. Krueger won the six dollar prize with a blackface impersonation. A juggling act by Carl Thorsen took the third prize of four dollars.

RED CROSS DRIVE BIG SUCCESS HERE

Organization Will be Able to Furnish Surgical Dressings

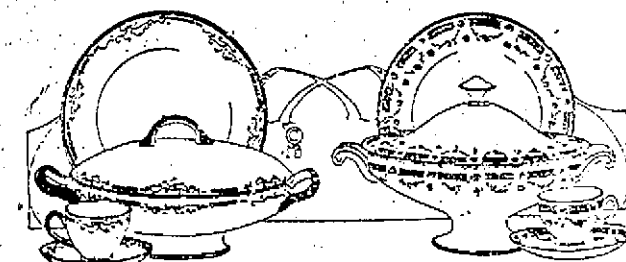

"We will easily be supplied with the number of surgical dressings required of us in the present campaign," said Mrs. Joseph Hobbs, head of the local Red Cross chapter, when asked about the success of the drive. With the splendid response being given by Madison women, the work of the 114 groups, the opening of new work rooms in the Capitol, Woman's building, Volunteers of America hall, and the majority of the churches, the supplies produced by this chapter will exceed the required number when the drive is closed on Dec. 20. The national drive came suddenly as a result of a cable from abroad asking for many more surgical dressings immediately.

A new shipment of yarn, 936 skeins, is ready for distribution at the Red Cross rooms today. It is estimated that this supply will not last more than twenty-four hours, so great is the demand for yarn. About 9,730 knitted articles have been sent from this chapter up to this time.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—George Willie Dole, historian, died suddenly in his office at Columbia university today.

THE USE OF BACON DRIPPINGS
People at times have felt that bacon was a luxury because the price seemed high, but how indispensable they have found it. There is no waste and from every serving of bacon cooked one gets excellent drippings which can be used in place of either lard or butter in pastry making, salad dressings and for frying. It also gives a fine flavor to the foods. Bacon is given as one of the first foods to convalescents because of the high food value.

HEART AND HOME
Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl twenty years old and I have been going with a young man for several months. Lately he and I have quarreled when we have been together and I have really been my fault because I have objected to his going with a certain other girl. He came to see me last night and he seemed a little impatient about my attitude, but he asked me to go to a moving picture theater with him next week. I am afraid that I will lose his friendship because of the way I have acted. He has been nice about it, but I feel a change in his attitude toward me. What shall I do?

BETTY
Fear is the greatest handicap you can have. If you are afraid you will lose a friendship you very likely will. Your friend will feel your lack of confidence.

It was a mistake to be disagreeable about the other girl, but the fact that you were should not cause you to worry now. All of us make mistakes often, but we shouldn't let them bother us—they are a blessing if we profit by them.

The boy likes you or he would have given you up before now. They very fact that he has asked you to go to the theater with him shows that he is still willing to be friends.

It is hard, of course, to be free from jealousy, but it is something you must work for. No one can take away from you what you rightfully deserve. If you are just as pleasing as you know how to be and try to be a girl of character you need have no regrets even if you lose the boy—other nice things will come to you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I have a boy friend who is a soldier and I think very much of him. He said he would write to me. He has been gone since August and I have only received two letters and I have written five to him. Do you think he does not want to write to me any more?

(2) One of his boy friends wants to go with me. Do you think it is right for me to go with him since the other does not write?

WORRIED HEART
(1) He is probably too busy to write. I wouldn't feel hurt if I were you. Send him a card at Christmas time and if he answers forgive him for his neglect.

(2) It is perfectly all right to go with other boys unless you are engaged.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) What would be a nice Christmas present for a boy?

(2) If a boy of eighteen goes with a girl of the same age, steadily and doesn't go with any other girls, do you think he cares for her?

(3) Are a boy and a girl of eighteen too young to go to a city to a show by themselves?

DOUBTFUL
(1) It is not necessary for a girl to give a boy a Christmas present unless she is engaged to him. In case she does give him a present, however, it should be something small—a book for instance.

(2) He probably cares for her at the time, but usually the love of a boy of eighteen is not lasting.

(3) Yes, I think they are.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: How often should a girl wash her hair? I have oily hair. For a week after I wash it it looks all right, but after that it is not fluffy. Is once every two weeks too often to wash it?

GERTRUDE M. T.
It is all right to wash the hair every two weeks, but it is better to wash it once a month. The oiler you wash your hair the oiler it will be. I think you will find that after your hair reaches a certain stage of oiliness, if you will not wash it, it will become fluffy again.

WILSON NOMINATES EXPLOSIVE INSPECTOR FOR WISCONSIN
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Joseph S. Guidice of Schleisserville was nominated today by President Wilson to be explosives inspector for Wisconsin.

Capital Times Features
The CAPITAL TIMES has succeeded in obtaining a number of features which we believe will quickly bring it a large following from the people of Madison and Dane county. Much time has been spent in obtaining features that are clean and wholesome and that represent the best that a newspaper in a city the size of Madison can afford to obtain. The list follows:

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
We believe that one of the biggest assets of this newspaper will be the full leased wire service of The Associated Press. The Associated Press will bring an amount of prestige and authority to our telegraph news that cannot be furnished by any other news-gathering organization. The Associated Press is the world's greatest news-gathering organization and we feel that we are particularly fortunate in having obtained this service.

CENTRAL PRESS SERVICE
For its feature and picture service THE CAPITAL TIMES will have the Central Press of Cleveland. This organization will keep us supplied with the latest photos of current news events. Through this organization we will obtain the cartoons of Morris, the New York Mail cartoonist.

RUBE GOLDBERG
To the readers of the soap-opinion papers the name Rube Goldberg is a familiar one. Goldberg is one of the highest satirical cartoonists in the country. His comic strips appear in the New York Mail and appear throughout the country.

PETSY DINK
Petsy Dink is a comic strip, the work of the artist, C. Voight. Voight's cartoons will appear daily in this paper.

SNOODLES
Snoodles is a comic strip that will meet with quick response from the children. The capers of Snoodles delight thousands of people throughout the country through the medium of the papers in which they are syndicated.

ABE MARTIN
Abe Martin and his quaint foibles are a feature that has claimed attention throughout the country. Kin Hubbard has the capacity of putting more pith and point into three or four lines than any writer in this country. Abe Martin will appear daily in this paper.

FUNNYVILLE MOVIES
The Funnyville Movies is another feature that will appeal to the children.

OTHER FEATURES
Many other features will appear daily in THE CAPITAL TIMES. These features will appeal to men, women and children.

TOWN TALK
MEETING OF LEAGUE—There will be a meeting of the Stoughton Defense League Friday night in the Firemen's room in the City Hall, for the purpose of planning for the new Red Cross drive, which begins Monday, Dec. 17, continuing until Xmas day.

Every member who has had a part in putting across the Liberty Loan and Y. M. C. A. drives are urged to be present.

MASS MEETING—There will be a big Mass Meeting, Sunday night at the Auditorium, for the purpose of arousing interest for the Red Cross drive.

Hiram Halverson, who has been at the Sunny Rest Sanatorium, of Racine, will return home for the holidays.

Mrs. Blenohl, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Julius Johnson, returned to her home in Highland Park today.

The regular meeting of the Robekas will be held Friday evening. All members are urged to be present as it is the election of officers.

A Box-Social and dance was held at the Woodman hall last evening. Quite a number were present and all had a good time.

A 9 pound daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson on Thursday evening.

Elmer Oscar left last evening for Chicago on a couple of day's business trip.

Rowe promoted—Clarence Rowe, hitherto 2nd Lieutenant of 1st Co. of 107th Military Police at Waco, Texas, has recently been promoted to 1st Lieutenant. Being one of the 300 officers and non-commissioned officers of Camp McArthur that were granted promotions. Among the 300 also is Maurice Carr, son of Mrs. Lynne Carr, who became a 2nd Lieutenant.

TRAIN FOR CAMP—For the convenience of the soldier boys of Camp Grant another special train will be run from Rockford to Madison next Saturday, returning Sunday evening. The train is due here at 3:15 Saturday afternoon, and leaves Madison at 6:30 Sunday evening, while primarily for the convenience of the soldiers who desire to visit relatives in this section. The train also carries other passengers (convenient for any one desiring to spend Sunday afternoon at the Capital city).

SUSPENDS DRILL—Because of the nearness of the holidays, Capt. Fortson, decided last night to suspend drill of the Home Guards. The company is made up largely of young men but an attempt will be made to interest the older men.

DELAY OLSON CASE—Decision of Edward Olson's application for pardon has been held up by Acting Governor Edward F. Dismar until the return from Waco of Gov. E. L. Philipp. Olson was convicted here in 1912 of murdering Peter Olstad and sentenced

Chiropractic is IT

THE LARGEST AND BEST CHRISTMAS PRESENT anyone can give or receive is Health. Stop drugging and see me.

ON the right you will notice a cut of the human spine and an arrow points to different locations of the spine and what will happen if pressure becomes too great at certain places in the spinal column.

To your left you will notice two cuts. One of the large, normal, healthy nerve; the other one you notice is a small, dwindled little fellow, which is being pressed upon by the vertebrae. The one above and the one below coming together too closely and the result is, the nerve is pressed. Whatever part of the body to which this nerve goes is abnormal. The right and only thing to do in cases of ill-health is to have the vertebrae adjusted and put in proper line, thus allowing Nature a free hand.

ON this page you will notice a cut of my Institute, a new building, especially adapted for my practice, a comfortable place for the sick to come, who are ill with chronic diseases, and stay until well; where the sick receive good, careful and courteous treatment. The words "COURTEOUS TREATMENT" are our watchwords. In this place you will get the best there is to be had anywhere in the universe. As Director of the Institute, I use my own judgment in every case and this judgment has proven to be worthy of consideration.

Slight subluxations at this point will cause so-called headaches, eye diseases, deafness, epilepsy, vertigo, insomnia, wry neck, facial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, etc.

A slight subluxation of a vertebrae in this part of the spine is the cause of so-called throat trouble, neuralgia, pain in the shoulders and arms, goitre, nervous prostration, la grippe, dizziness, bleeding from nose, disorder of gums, catarrh, etc.

The arrow head marked No. 3 locates the part of the spine wherein subluxations will cause so-called bronchitis, fellons, pain between the shoulder blades, rheumatism of the arms and shoulders, hay fever, writer's cramps, etc.

A vertebral subluxation at this point causes so-called nervousness, heart disease, asthma, pneumonia, tuberculosis, difficult breathing, other lung troubles, etc.

Stomach and liver troubles, enlargement of the spleen, pleurisy and a score of other troubles, so-called, are caused by subluxations of this part of the spine, sometimes so light as to remain unnoticed by others except the trained Chiropractor.

Here we find the cause of so-called gall stones, dyspepsia of upper bowels, fevers, shingles, hiccoughs, worms, etc.

Bright's disease, diabetes, floating kidney, skin disease, boils, eruptions and other diseases, so-called, are caused by nerves being pinched in the spinal openings at this point.

Regulations of such troubles as so-called appendicitis, peritonitis, lumbago, etc., follow Chiropractic adjustments at this point.

Why have so-called constipation, rectal troubles, sciatica, etc., when Chiropractic adjustments at this point of the spine will remove the cause?

A slight slippage of one or both innominate bones will likewise produce so-called sciatica, together with many "diseases" of plevs and lower extremities.

HONEST ADVERTISING

A FEW years ago, and by some at the present time, advertising is not considered ethical. I beg to differ from those few, who do not consider honest advertising along health lines ethical. So long as anyone has a health system, and advertises the system in an honest, legitimate way, I think it is perfectly within the bonds of good ethics. On the other hand, if a person advertises to do something that they cannot do, it is not within the bounds of ethics, and should not be promulgated.

The Chiropractic Profession has something that is worthy of the consideration of every man, woman and child in the universe, sick or well. Now, let me ask you a question: How do you expect us to get our Health Science before the people if we do not advertise? In all of our advertisements you will find that they are written in a perfectly honest manner. Suppose that you were the inventor of a household necessity. You lived in Madison, New York City or San Francisco. You wished to get this particular article into the home of every family in these United States, and this was a good article, a useful article, one that would save the housewife many steps and lighten her burden of household work, wouldn't you advertise it in order to get it before the people? Your answer would be in the affirmative. This is what we are doing as a Chiropractic profession, trying to get a useful Health System before the people, because it is the EASIEST AND BEST WAY OF GAINING HEALTH

INVESTIGATE Chiropractic, this system is good for rheumatism in all its forms, Gout, Diabetes, Stomach trouble, Kidney trouble, St. Vitus dance, or any so called disease. All the nerves are in some manner under control of the great center of nerve energy, the brain. From the brain radiate many filaments or threads or nerves. The largest bundle or sheath of nerves is the spinal cord which passes down the spine in a channel composed of a number of small bones (vertebrae), that protects it. Branches of this great bundle of nerves pass out from the cord between these vertebrae through small openings going to every portion of the body where they regulate the actions of various organs and perform functions of their own, like the sense of touch, a sensation of pain, etc. It is easy to understand how the pressure of a slight misplacement of the small bones of the spine may interfere with the action of the nerve so pressed upon. The nerve cannot cause natural action of the parts of the system it supplies with energy capacity of the adults know how to take of themselves. Here is the suggestion in English, and I hope sincerely many of you will see that it will be put into effect in the coming vacation time, as well as during recesses, in the school. Organized play is what I mean. I will do away with a great many broken black eyes, twisted fingers, wry necks, and all of the things that are the necessary foregoing part of the article. The way to do this is to have the teacher on duty at the noon hour. He too, would enjoy the open air, and as a guide directing the children in their bodies during the school periods. I should not do more than that the child should still be free to sit in a natural relaxed position. No yoga. I think this will add to the many duties of the school teacher. If this is more of a plan than should be placed upon her, I think that someone trained in a proper way, should be able to do it.

Proper breathing is one of the most essential things in maintaining health. The majority of the people do not inhale deep enough breaths. There is a reason for them not inhaling to the extent of the capacity of the lungs, and this reason is because of these habits.

I have given you the causes of the blues and their relief where there does not seem to exist ill-health. Now then, if this body is aching and in pain and continues for many months in this state, it, too, will bring the

of any of its forms.

Neuralgia, neuritis, are forms of rheumatism which are caused by pressure upon the nerves, also. There is another form of rheumatism, myalgia, sometimes, sometimes in the joints, and sometimes of the muscles and flesh alone. The inflammatory class of rheumatism is caused identically the same as any other form of rheumatism. The inflammation or swelling is first caused by nerve pressure which shuts off the flow of the blood partially. The slackage in the flow of the blood allows it to become congealed. Coagulation remaining for some time length of the cause and the consequent inflammation causes more swelling until finally the part affected enlarges the capacity to the stretching of the skin. The skin and flesh being together tightly cuts out almost entirely the blood circulation in the affected part. In order to remove the cause as above stated. The first cause of any kind of rheumatic trouble is nerve pressure, naturally then one would look to removing the cause first; which would allow the mental impulse to the affected part; or parts, increasing the flow of blood, and the increasing of the flow of blood will carry away the inflamed condition. It is a proven fact that people afflicted with rheumatism have found no relief by the old time methods such as water, hot applications, medi-

There is a place in the spinal column that in any case of the organism gives wrong or the extremities whether the trouble be local or great by participation of the spine, the Chiropractor can locate and adjust it. A tender place may be found there and be connected to the part affected and if you please, contraction is a partial paralysis of the intestine, tract, or of the liver, or the stomach may be partly to blame. The cease of function of any part of the body should properly be named partial paralysis.

The University

THE University of Wisconsin is Madison's greatest institution. It is the pride of the people of this state. It has attained national admiration and international renown.

The university has reached this exalted position because it has been a people's university. It has been imbued with the spirit of democracy. It has spread the spirit of democracy out into the state and nation. Thousands, fired with the spirit of democracy, have come to Wisconsin to get the spirit and inspiration of this institution.

It is difficult to understand, therefore, why this institution which has been in the vanguard in the procession of democracy should be charged with being selfish and apathetic regarding a great conflict being waged in the interests of democracy. The university is charged with being unpatriotic—it is said that the university has not been militant in its patriotism.

It is to be hoped that those making these charges are prompted by patriotic motives in doing so. If the presents attack was coming from the real friends of the university—men and women who have been friends of the institution in both peace and war—we believe that there should be some concern shown over the situation. But is it? Have many of these people making these charges ever been conspicuous in their friendship for the university? Is any of the present criticism due to personal animus or to personal grudges? Are these enemies of the university using the cloak of patriotism to further their vindictive against the institution? These are pertinent questions and important.

What is the record of the university in the question of patriotism? We shall always remember a day last spring when 800 young men jauntily
swung into King street on their way to the Northwestern depot. They were university men on their way to St. Sheridan. The ink on the declaration of war was barely dry. That was the supreme test of patriotism and the number who went from Wisconsin should always be an answer to the present accusers.

A hundred and fifty volunteers were asked for as a quota of the university at the first camp of instruction. Over three times the number were eager to go, and almost twice the number were accepted. Did these men lack patriotism? Ask the War Department, which granted them commissions. For the second camp ninety-six received commissions.

Did these carry away all the patriotism with them? Those who were left had one patriotic duty and privilege, to help in the industrial and agricultural crisis of last spring and summer. There are on record 1,600
students who engaged for some time in this work, and 1,800 who carried on their work for the time and under the conditions entitling them to the insignia for war-work. This is in addition to a considerable number who pitched in at the crisis without going through the form of registration, and getting on the record. Could more be asked?

Then came the Liberty Loan, and the second Liberty Loan. Just how much students contributed is not certain;
but so much is sure—that if the whole United States contributed in proportion to its means as the students at the University of Wisconsin did, the oversubscription would have been even greater than it was. These students have not much money of their own.
Those for whom "dad" pays the bills
have not commonly any great surplus for investment; and those who pay their own way have to earn their living by sacrificial toil and to live with Spartan self-denial. Both kinds have made sacrifices and shown courage.

In this connection it has been said that the university did not subscribe
as liberally as it should have to the Liberty Loan. Instances are cited

where other universities contributed more. Is that a fair test? Is patriotism a matter of amount? We venture the assertion that the son of some Marathon country farmer working his way through school who buys a $80 bond is fully as patriotic as the son of some Wall street man who buys
$1,000 in bonds at Harvard or Yale.
The lesson of the widow's mite might avail here.

For the Y. M. C. A. fund the University asked for $20,000. It raised $22,000, and that promptly when the need was made plain. There can be no doubt that these who had charge
of the local campaign made mistakes,
not from lack of devotion, but from lack of experience. These drives should be short and sharp, and the amount to be expected from the average subscriber must be made clear from the first. The Wisconsin campaign was spread over too much time,
and the solicitors were not sufficiently instructed, but the response was prompt and generous when the demand was clearly made. Moreover, the response came from a recognition of a sense of duty, and no thanks to the scoolding and irritating tone assumed by some of the speakers at the final mass meeting. No matter about the applause—the money was forthcoming,
and money talks. For many students that money meant several days
of work and no small sacrifice.

How about the faculty? Out of 751
members of the teaching staff, 118,
or 15% percent are now in permanent war work, 73 actually in the army or the navy of the United States. Besides these, many more—practically a definitely useful form of war activity—has engaged in some direct or indirect service to the United States.
Some have performed scientific service of great military value. Some have taught French in camps, some have given lessons in food conservation.

The humblest have at least raised gardens. At this day, the faculty is to be criticized, not for lack of patriotic spirit, but for a restless uneasiness in their normal occupation,
due to their desire to be active in a more direct way. They have given money, and time as they could, and they want to do more.

Then there is the organized administration of the institution. It has placed every resource of the university, material and intellectual, at the command of the agencies of our national defense, to any extent compatible with the maintenance of the university as an institution of learning. It has given the freest leave of absence, with regular promotion as if in residence, to its officers in military or other indispensable war service; it has given its students who enter that service the most ungrudging
and liberal terms on which to obtain their degrees. Look at the names of the workers in the active agencies
of this state and nation, and you will find that the names of officers of the University thus encouraged to give their service, will appear in positions of responsibility.

In this day of trial, every agency is to be judged not by words but by works. The University is systematically training a military group and developing future officers, men of science, physicians, engineers, leaders of all kinds. It is doing this with a conscious sense of public obligation, and as effectively as it knows how.

Viewed from a purely Madison standpoint there is another deplorable
feature of the present controversy.
The reckless publicity being sent out of Madison is being herded throughout the country. The people of the country are being told that the university is a hotbed of Kaiserism.

If this slander gains any large credence it is bound to injure the university from an attendance standpoint. The University is Madison's largest business asset. Any harm that comes to the university harms
the city. It is to be hoped that this propaganda will not bring about these results.

If froth and gush constitutes real patriotism then perhaps the university is not patriotic; if the size of the bank check is the measure of loyalty
in a Liberty loan campaign then it may be that the students are apathetic;
but if real patriotism consists in going at a thing in a determined, sane
and constructive way then there is no indignation that can be made of the university's stand.

The university is trying to do its job—and we believe it is doing it.

25 BELOW AT DULUTH.
WAS YESTERDAY'S RECORD

(By Associated Press)
Duluth, Minn., Dec. 14.—The temperature here this forenoon reached 21 degrees below zero, and fell later to 25 below. The temperature is expected to rise tomorrow. The cold extends all over the northwest and considerably to the south, for Kansas City registered 4 degrees below and Wichita, Kansas, 2 degrees below.
Other temperatures in the territory
hit by the cold wave are as follows,
all below zero.

Fargo 28; Devil's Lake 30; Bismarck 32; Huron 25; Sioux City 20;
Omaha 14 and Des Moines 10.

ACCEPT NEW STREETS—At a meeting at 2 o'clock this afternoon
the board of public works accepted a number of new streets.

AS THEY LEAVE US.

Valente no plaudite
Bid farewell with pride,
Show no trace of sorrow;
Smile into their eyes,
Though you courage borrow,
There will be another day,
And a time
To pay!

Very brave their look,
But their hearts are tender,
Cry aloud your faith!
Loyal tribute render!
For they go—the young, the brave—
Liberty
To save!

Tell them not of fear;
Whisper not of sadness;
Overcome today
With heroic glances;
Let your love, remembered, shine
As a light Benign!

Simple is their trust,
But 'tis deep as ocean;
Loyal is their hope,
Selfless their devotion;
And they go—the young, the brave—
Liberty
To save!

Hark! The bugles call!
Wave your banners—cheer them!
Happy, let them dream!
All that's valiant near them!
They will know, when far from you,
That the dream
Was true!

Voice of the People

HAS SENATORIAL PLAN.

To the Editor of The Capital Times:
The chief political topic of interest
in Wisconsin today is the choice of a United States Senator—not only who
it shall be, but how he shall be chosen. If the resolutions that are being adopted by county boards form any criterion, if the editorials in the great majority of Wisconsin newspapers give us any basis to judge from, the sentiment of the people is overwhelmingly in favor of a special election.

The fact that some good loyal citizens in whom we have great faith,
lean toward an appointment, leads me
to believe that they fear that our primary and election machinery
adapted as it is to recognized political parties, might result in the selection of good men in the two old parties, either at the primary or the election, and that the outcome might be disastrous.

For some, you and I are satisfied that if the election can be brought to a square test between a candidate representing the loyalty and patriotism of the state, and one standing for treason or cold feet, or whatever he may designate his platform
—Wisconsin will not prove a "doubtful state."

With this purpose in view I wish to make the following suggestion,
and I make it now before an election
is called because if it is thought practical it may help to strengthen the demand for an election.
A state convention should be called to meet at Milwaukee or Madison,
to be composed of delegates from each county in proportion to the population. The number of delegates and basis of apportionment are details that can be easily provided for later.

The delegates should be elected by county conventions, which may be either mass or delegate conventions,
and every such county convention
can and should be a regular revival meeting for the awakening of loyalty
in this state.

Such state convention should adopt a platform and by a majority vote nominate a candidate. The man who can receive a majority of the votes of a convention like that cannot be far from right. Then we should circulate nomination papers for such a candidate's name to be placed in the independent column.

The officers of the Democratic Prohibition and Republican parties ought to discourage anyone from seeking the nomination of those parties at the primary, and refuse the support of the party machinery to any self-seekers. If anyone does seek such nomination he should be merely laughed at.

It is possible that less than ten per cent of the party vote at the primary would be cast and no nomination made if the plan here proposed is put into effect as most of the treasonable element will not vote with the parties above named. Even if someone does obtain the right to go on the ballot as the nominee of one of the old parties, he would get practically none of the really loyal votes
which would go to the convention
candidate; and such freak candidates would therefore only serve to divide
the disloyal vote, thereby aiding us.

If you are a friend of the primary election, please do not condemn this move as an "evolution" of the primary.
The right still exists for people to assemble, and conventions have been repeatedly held since the primary law, not to evade it, but to more efficiently comply with it.

Now I know of only one organization in the state that can be properly looked to and asked to arrange for such a convention. It seems to me to be just the place that such a move should originate. I refer to the Wisconsin Loyalty Legion.

In fairness to this organization I should say that this circular is sent out wholly upon my own responsibility and without any authority from anyone else. I have not in mind the election or defeat of any particular individual. I write you only in my capacity as a life long citizen of Wisconsin, who has taken an active and persistent interest in political matters for nearly a quarter century. I should be glad to know what you think of this and if you approve, why not bring your approval to the notice of the Wisconsin Loyalty Legion?

dine.

THE CAPITAL TIMES: OUR AIMS

WITH this issue of THE CAPITAL TIMES the management greets its readers, one and all, in a spirit of open hearted friendship and good will.

THE CAPITAL TIMES is,
we believe, born of a real necessity. Madison is a rapidly growing city. Dane county is one of the great and prosperous counties of the state. These present an attractive field for a newspaper that will deal with the news and issues of the day
in an intelligent and impartial manner.

The city of Madison and Dane county possess a population of rare intelligence. The people here are progressive,— they desire to keep abreast of the times in all that makes for prosperity and better civic life.

It is the desire of this paper
to promote the interests of our city, county and state in a broad, liberal spirit. It has no enemies to punish; it has no special interests to serve. It is the organ of no man, no set
of men, no faction, no party.
We shall endeavor to consider principles rather than men.
THE CAPITAL TIMES will be independent of political parties
and is fully determined to hear all men, all parties, all interests,—fairly and honestly. It will always stand unwavering-ly for good government in the city, county, state and nation.

In making this announcement, we are not unmindful of the fact that the influence of newspapers has been on the wane in the last decade. People are becoming more and more skeptical of the honesty and integrity of American journalism. "You can't believe one-half of what you read in the papers" is becoming an all too common phrase in this country. This feeling has been engendered to a large extent

by distortion of news, suppression of news, the injection of the personal views and prejudices of publishers into the news, and the misuse of newspapers in attacking and persecuting individuals and institutions unjustly and unfairly.

In succeeding issues of THE CAPITAL TIMES we shall have more to say on this subject. Newspapers have for long trained the spotlight of publicity on others. We believe that a big service can be rendered the people by now turning the spotlight of publicity on the newspapers.

We are exceedingly anxious to make THE CAPITAL TIMES an open forum for the people of Madison and Dane county. By making this newspaper a medium for the expression of the thoughts, feelings and convictions of the people of this community THE CAPITAL TIMES can be made a great power for good. We shall not exclude matter because it does not conform to our opinions. Our only request is that the people desirous of using the columns of this paper shall not resort to personalities, abuse or libel but shall criticize men and measures in a constructive and friendly spirit.

THE CAPITAL TIMES begins modestly but we believe that it will grow from day to day in the hearts of the people.
It will aim to be a people's paper in that it will serve the people in their collective capacity with a truly democratic policy.

We merely ask the cooperation of all good citizens to the extent that our merits deserve
such cooperation.

SPEND MILLIONS

(From Kansas City Star)

Most of us know that John D. Rockefeller several years ago dedicated 100 million dollars of his fortune to a public fund to be known as the Rockefeller Foundation, of which John D.
Vinecent, former president of the University of Minnesota, is president.
Few of us had any definite idea
of how the vast income from this fund is being spent. The last report of the foundation, a volume of 468 pages, is exceedingly interesting. It reveals a world of activity in many departments of human welfare. The fund and its income are under the control of a board of trustees named by Mr. Rockefeller and self-perpetuating.

The income last year amounted to $5,300,000, of which 1 million went for war relief. The trustees appropriated 2 1/2 millions for this purpose which is being spent this year and is not in last year's report.

The work of the foundation is divided among many branches each working along the general plan to extend the boundaries of human knowledge in everything pertaining to the causes and nature of disease, its treatment and prevention, and also to relieve distress,
and to investigate various governmental and industrial problems, the solving of which would uplift humanity. To summarize briefly the more prominent of these activities, a yellow fever
commission went to South America and reported the possibility of stamping out this scourge. The question of malaria prevention was investigated by the establishing of experiment stations. The hookworm disease was studied and treated in this country, Brazil and different Asiatic countries. One of the foundation's aims is to promote medical education in China, and 1/2 million dollars was spent in that. It was decided to help establish a medical school of high rank as part of the University of Chicago, large gifts
were made to various medical colleges.
An institute of Public Health was established at Johns Hopkins University and 1/2 million dollars given to put up a building. The Rockefeller Foundation gave $50,000 to assist in handling the epidemic of infantile paralysis in New York; it maintained Dr. Alexis Carrel in France for the study of sterilization and treatment of infected wounds. Mental abnormalities of prisoners were studied in Sing Sing; war relief work included the appropriation of vast sums for all the war stricken Allies; $500,000 for relief in Armenia
and Syria; $50,000 to Serbia; relief; $200,000 to the Y. M. C. A. work among war prisoners, and $25,000 for relief in Turkey, and so on. A summary shows that up to December 31, 1916, the foundation had given 2 million dollars to war relief, of which $1,300,000 went to Belgium.

This enumerates briefly only a few of the benefactions of this foundation,
the purpose of which, as its founder,
the elder Mr. Rockefeller states is to promote "the well being of man and throughout the world."

Simple Remedy.—In these days of nervous prostration, called by some
"nervous prosperity," because it is so prevalent among the idle rich, this story of the famous Dr. Abernathy, found it was a case of nerves. "Doc-

doctor, 'why in the name of common sense do you put your hand to your Position Explained.—Two army doctors while ballooning, lost trace of their whereabouts, and, wishing to know which part of the country they were passing, saw a rustic at some distance working in the fields, and gradually descended. When nearly overhead one of them called out: "Hi,

there, Johnny, can you tell us where we are?" The rustic merely reared up in much amazement. Thinking he had not heard, one of the officers again
shouted out, louder than ever: "Where are we?" Just as the balloon drifted past, came the answer: "Who, ye be in a balloon, beant' ye?" What the officer said when they heard this is not recorded.—Minneapolis Journal.

Won the Cigars.—The subject of rifle shooting often cropped up at one of the training camps. "I'll bet anyone here a box of cigars," said Lieut.
A, "that I can fire twenty shots at 200 yards, and tell, without waiting for the marker, the result of each one correctly." "Done!" cried Maj. B. And the whole mess turned out early the next morning to witness the experiment. The lieutenant fired. "Miss!"
he announced, calmly. Another shot,
"Miss!" he repeated. A third shot,
"Miss!" "Here, hold on!" put in Maj.
B. "What are you trying to do?
You're not firing for the target?"
"Of course not!" was the cool response. "I'm firing for those cigars!"
And he got them.—Washington Herald.

ZIMMERMAN RETURNS.—County
Judge A. G. Zimmerman has returned from Milwaukee.

The Nakoma Tomahawk

A VILLAGE IMPROVEMENTS
member of the Nakoma egg board informs us that a well constructed camouflaged erected about the chicken refrigerator
will do much to increase the winter egg yield.

The irrigation system of the Turner-McWethney wigwags, which gave such an amount of trouble during the fore part of the year, is at length completed.

A freight and baggage carload has recently been added to these establishments and makes regular trips between these and the University cinder dump.

Sumner & Miller Company are promising the addition of an intelligent boy to their holdings. A red and brown mottled moosey cow grazing up and down the main street of the village might indeed add something to its aesthetic beauty and animation.

Since our last issue our genial sahmagist Doc Hugel has fled the village. "Never hurt a bit" and he is said to be hitting the high spots elsewhere.

ARROWLETS.

Members of the American force of invasion will soon be seen going over the top in France clad in helmets, scarfs, sweaters, wristlets, liver-pads and hostelry furnished by the knitting section of the Nakoma Red Cross unit.

'Accountant Sakrisson tells some harrowing tales of the abundance and voracity of grasshoppers in the Boston-navy bean sector in which he was engaged during the summer.

A stirring incident of the late summer was the capture of a burglar by Mayor Marks. At midnight or thereabouts, clad only in a pair of pink and white striped unmentionables, the honorable chief executive of the village sprinted up the turnpike finally overtaking and capturing his prey
near the Bateman gladiolus preserve.
In telling the story in all its harrowing details his honor makes much of the fact that his only weapon in this encounter was a boulder which he found by the roadside. The Mayor is slated for the V. C.

Sometime during the summer a tennis tournament was staged by local celebrities in Nakoma Park. We are not advised of the final outcome of this picturesque contest. An interested female spectator stated that on the whole it was a surprising test of endurance on the part of both the players and spectators.

ABOUT THE VILLAGE PUMP

One "Fuzz" Lamb, a newcomer in our little burg, is reported to be experimenting with kerosene as a substitute for wood alcohol as an antifreeze mixture in his automobile tank.
Learning this, the Nakoma poetess
has evolved the following:
The doctor reached for his surgical case and giveth a crocodile groan
The marble man goeth out the while and polisheth up a stone
The undertaker mournfully asks
What will his measure be
And the taxon marketh a spot reserved all under the linden tree.
Phil Sheridan and U. S. Grant are presiding over the fortunes of the Daily Tanks this winter. Golt struts

the boches who attempt to block communication line between Nakoma and Madison this winter with these two redoubtable heroes on the "drive"

Now when you and your wife are spending the blithe autumn evenings figuring up the returns of your war garden don't omit to include the item of the bed of about one-half bushel of onions which cost you $10 to fertilize, irrigate and cultivate and a whole bushel of which you could at the season's close have purchased anywhere for $1.25.

The new Nakoma schoolhouse is completed and now occupied by the school. We refuse to commit ourselves on the subject of its architectural beauty or usefulness until after we have tasted the reams of pumpkin pie which are to be distributed free of charge by the ladies of the reception committee at the formal dedication which is soon to take place.

A family by the name of Mitchell
have erected their comfortable wigwam on Hill No. 232 in the Park sector. Mr. Mitchell we know to be an agreeable gentleman in some manner connected with the advancement of education in a neighboring hamlet.

The picturesque McKillop red embulance will be seen no more by the side of the pike. The family has moved to the city for the winter.
Mac will be missed. He paid his subscription regularly.

DUGOUT GOSPEL

One Smith, a hireling of our water department believes that the interests of our burg can be best served by decreasing the water pressure and increasing the water rate. We wish to argue for a separate peace with this gentleman.

Sister Orth is said to be making an enviable reputation with her recipes
for Hoooverized flapjacks and eggless gingerbread.

Brother Jones dropped into our editorial sanctum one day last week to discuss his "great drainage problem." Unfortunately the boss devil who also draws a salary as our bouncer was out, our horse pistol doing duty as a tack hammer at home and the village constable not within call, so we were obliged to listen to his discourse.

A party of the festive townfolk
recently attended by invitation a round-up and basket auction at the Bryant schoolhouse. All went well and merrily until one of our young gallants bid in by mistake the basket of the village belle. We reached home by a detour through the bush with but a few casualties. We have invited the "springwater district folks
to a rukus at our own schoolhouse.

RIPON BEATEN BY VARSITY, 33-13

Olsen's Cardinal Squad Shows Game Fight But Loses 33 to 13

CAPTAIN CHANDLER STAR

Varsity Captain Waits for Call to Navy But is Able to Play

Captain William Chandler of the Badger basketball team, who is now enlisted in the navy, but who will probably not be called until he has played one or two of the Badger's conference games, with the help of Eber Simpson, won Wisconsin's game over Ripon in the gymnasium Thursday night by a score of 33 to 13.

The state college team, although not yet sufficiently trained to put up any kind of a game against a university five, looked mighty good to the Wisconsin students. Harold Olsen, Ripon coach, who captained last year's Badger quintette, has taught the Ripon team the same kind of a game that used to be played by Wisconsin when Dr. W. E. Meadwell was winning the championship after another for one of the first games of the season, the other members of the varsity really showed signs of basketball, and greatly raised the hopes of the Badger students who are looking with grave fears toward the time when Chandler will leave for the naval training station.

Page and Williams were the star basketballers for the visitors, though Eaton got two clean baskets. The Wisconsin defense, which showed marked improvement since the Belmont game, kept the visitors away from the goal so that they had to attempt long throws for the most part and missed many baskets by a close margin.

After the first half had been finished with a score of 14 to 7 in the locals' favor and the opening moments of the second half widened the margin by nine points, the coach sent Zulfar in to relieve Captain Chandler; Spengler in place of Malsel; Pease for Brock and to add a vaudeville touch to the program replaced Simpson with Schwartz. The latter tore up and down the floor, being everywhere, and was several times mixed up in a tangled mass of arms and legs. As far as speed and action was concerned, he was a wonder, and if the Riponites had kept out of his way he would have run up a big score all alone.

The lineup and summary:
Ripon Wisconsin
Halverson R.P. Malsel
Monroe L.O. Simpson
Page C.O. Chandler
Eaton R.G. Spengler
Lund R.G. Svenson
Lund R.G. Brock
Full basket: Chandler 6, Simpson 4, Malsel 2, Zulfar 2, Eaton 2, Page 1, Williams 1.
Free throws: Chandler 3, Page 5.
Substitutions: Williams for Halverson, Leaper for Eaton, Zulfar for Chandler, Spengler for Malsel, Schwartz for Simpson, Pease for Brock.

Referee—Littick, Ohio Wesleyan.

MADISON BOWLERS ENTER TOURNAMENT

Four Local Teams Have Already Secured Dates for State Contest

Four of Madison's bowling teams have secured their dates for the state tournament at Neenah and Monona next month. The Pan Dandy five and the Capitol five will bowl on January 20-21, and Frank's Restaurant and Lawrence's Lunch on February 8-9. Other Madison teams have also entered the meet, but their dates have not yet been received. A good-sized delegation of local bowlers, however, will be on hand to represent the city. The local teams will probably secure most of their games for the last week of January and the first in February.

JACKY FIVE SEES

BASKETBALL TITLE

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 14.—Real basketball practice has begun for the Great Lakes naval training five which will soon be joined by Captain William Chandler of the Badger basketball team.

The jacks in basket togs have been firing at the hoop for the last week, but none has passed the limbering up stage, because of Coach Olcott's orders.

Bartlett gymnasium will house the Lakes Aves New Year's night, when the Page pupils are battled. This will be the first important game on the bluejackets' schedule, although a few preliminary contests are listed for the latter part of this month. A clash with the Gophers will follow at Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 5.

Because conference fives are not limited to any certain number of games in a season, the schedule of the sailors probably will be dotted conspicuously with "big ten" bookings. It is even possible that every team in the circuit will be listed before the campaign ends.

COLLINS TO ENLIST

DECLARES JOHNSON

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 14.—President San Johnson of the American league announced today that it was practically certain that Eddie Collins, the world champion Chicago's second baseman, will enlist in some branch of war service.

Johnson announced at the American league meeting yesterday that President Comiskey gave the Philadelphia club $50,000 for Collins and gave Collins a $15,000 bonus and a five year contract at $15,000 a year.

THURSDAY'S SPORT RESULTS.

At Rock Island, Ill.—Roy Moore of Minneapolis and Ed Herman of Pekin, Ill., fought a ten round draw; Johnny Donohue of Rock Island stopped Kid Hale of Fargo in three rounds, and Young Tony Cuponi of Rock Island defeated Tommy Caldwell of Cedar Rapids in three rounds.

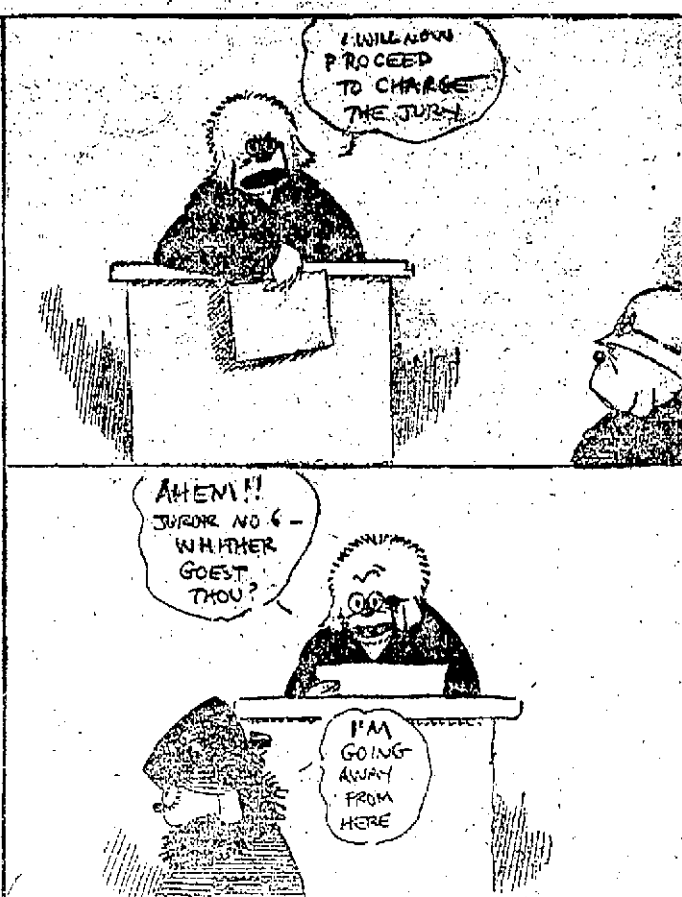

In the international wrestling tournament at New York, Dr. B. F. Roller threw Charles Popish; Yussif Hassan defeated Sula Hevengpa, and Ivan Lisaw won from Fred Piliakoff.

200 POUNDS OF MONEY

LOST IN BANK ROBBERY

(By the Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Two hundred pounds of money was the loot obtained in the La Grange State Bank robbery yesterday, authorities announced today. At first it was thought the bank's loss was $25,000 but it was learned today that more than $40,000 is missing, made up of gold weighing 140 pounds and sixty pounds of silver.

HIGH SCHOOL OUT FOR STATE TITLE

Coach Crispin After Team That Will Clean Up The Entire State

After cutting the squad of basketball shooters to about twenty men, Coach Crispin is now trying to pick a team that will bring the state championship to Madison. It is probable that no further cuts will be made until after the Christmas vacation, at which time it is likely that will be brought down to about fifteen.

Work-outs are being held daily to give the players plenty of practice in shooting, passing and dribbling. A snappy scrimmage is usually the closing number.

No one has been picked to fill the one vacancy, not have any of the old players been replaced. The coach is trying several combinations, one of the best seems to be Gill at center and Tauchen at forward.

WISCONSIN MARKSMEN

MAKE GOOD SHOWING

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 14.—General target practice for all regiments at Camp Custer has caused Col. H. J. Allen, range officer, to declare that Wisconsin and Michigan have sent a large number of unusually remarkable riflemen to the contest. In fact, he declared that Camp Custer may lead all of the contingents in this respect. Col. Allen believes that the best hunting in Wisconsin and Michigan has had much to do with developing the hundreds of select men who are in training here.

Strikes and Spares

Close competition is holding in the Major League. There is only a difference of one game between the Pan Dandies, Frank's Restaurant and Lawrence's Lunch. The Lawrence Lunch and the Frank's teams meet tonight in a match that will go a long way toward showing which of the trio will have the advantage.

CLAIMS HE'S CRAZY TO GET OUT OF SERVICE IN ARMY

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 14.—A select man from Houghton country bears the distinction of having given army officers at the local cantonment, the most radical reason why he should be exempted from military service. He presented an affidavit from a friend who swore that he was crazy.

Commanding officers decided the draft man seemed bright enough to "get by" and he is wearing a soldier's uniform.

MADISON WALKER ISSUES CHALLENGE

Walker B. Meiller of This City Now Champ Walker Seeks Match

Walker B. Meiller, champion professional walker, and a Madison man who has taken walking honors all over the world has returned home, and is now challenging pedestrians throughout the state and the country for a match in the university gymnasium. His challenge is for distance from one to five miles and he always holds his walking contests indoors. He is a native of Blooming Grove, but has made his home in Madison for many years and helped put this city on the map by his performance in beating some of the greatest walkers of the times.

He has defeated Gerald M. Dickenson, professional five-mile walker, and has made the time of 6:20 for the mile. Upon securing the testimony of the judges of this contest, this record will stand as the official walking record for the fastest time ever made for the mile.

Daily training in the university gymnasium is keeping Mr. Meiller in fit shape for a possible match, and he is looking about the state for a walker with whom to compete in a professional match here this winter. He is in excellent physical condition, and all around athlete. His records make him the champion of all American walkers, and he has surpassed even the famous "Billy" Purdy, a great walker in the '90s.

GRIDIRON PILOTS

Summarized the important questions to be considered by the sixteen owners of the two leagues are:
The advisability of reducing the playing schedule to 160 games.
Devising a method of collecting the federal war tax.
Settlement of the financial obligations resulting from the federal league war.

Suggestion of a new division of the world series receipts.

Inserting a veto clause in the players' contract to protect the club owners in the event the players called in to the national army.

MAJOR OWNERS IN MEETING TODAY

Leagues to Hold First Joint Meet in Years

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 14.—Whether baseball will start early in April or about May 1, and whether the major league teams will play a schedule of 164 games, as usual, or cut the season to 140 will be determined today when managers of the American league and the National league assemble together at the Congress hotel in the first joint session held in years.

While the American leaguers were waiting for their National league counterparts to come here from New York, a session was held yesterday, at which there was much discussion, but not much decisive action. On the important issues of the day the American leaguers begged to be excused until they had had an opportunity to talk things over with the Nationals.

Regarding the schedule, the National league will hold the whip hand when the two bodies meet, because the National leaguers have absolute control of the ball grounds in New York. As the Americans have to use the same park, it will be necessary to agree to the schedule adopted by the Nationals, so that games in Gotham may be booked without conflict. In spite of that the National league has refrained from naming the length of the schedule until they have talked things over with their rivals.

The real purpose of the joint meeting is to form some sort of working agreement between the two major leagues so that baseball can be carried on next season regardless of war conditions which threaten to disrupt several clubs and make baseball half in and half out.

The National league club owners left New York yesterday shortly before noon, cutting their annual meeting short in order to catch a flyer for Chicago. They will arrive this morning about 9 o'clock if the trains are on time, and at 1 o'clock the big men of both major leagues will go into joint session.

Aside from the length of the schedule, the club owners will get together on the matter of players' contracts for next season. Of course the idea is to get economics in every possible way. The first means of economy which hits the mind of a manager is his power to cut the salary of the player. There is likely to be some wonderful salary clipping in the next few months and naturally some stories following of players refusing to sign because of mistreatment.

ARMY-NAVY TRACK MEET

IN GYM SATURDAY

Coach Tom Jones of the Badger team has taken a novel means of finding material for his varsity track team. All track possibilities and gym candidates will divide themselves into two teams, one the Army and the other the Navy for a track meet Saturday afternoon. The coach hopes thereby to uncover a number of future greats in the varsity track world.

PRES. WEEGHMAN INSURES PLAYERS FOR $100,000

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—That Pitcher Grover Alexander and Catcher Bill Killefer are considered the fastest assets the Chicago Cub team ever has had was brought to light today when President Weeghman announced that he would insure the two players for $100,000 as soon as he returned to Chicago and finished his negotiations for other trades that are pending.

The star battery will be insured for life and accident and according to President Weeghman, this is necessary when the enormous amount paid for them is considered.

NEW ICE YACHT TO REVIVE SPORT

Steinle Company's Boat May Enter Races This Year

YACHT CLUB LAYS PLANS Many Members Missing But Sport Likely to be Kept up This Winter

The completion of the ice-boat that is being built by the Bernard Boat company for the Steinle Machine company, probably about the first of the year, is expected to revive ice yachting in this city for the rest of the winter.

The Steinle yacht will be in the "22" class, which is the same class as the Princess II, owned by the Fauerbach Brewing company, which is in possession of the Bearst trophy won at Gull Lake, Kalamazoo. The new Steinle boat, the two Fauerbach Princesses, the "Toot Toot," owned by Commodore Perry Fess of the Madison Ice Yacht club, and Bernard's "Yellow Kid," are expected to play important roles in the revival of the ice-racing game here this winter.

As presented the club has made up plans for races, as the war has taken so many of its members whose boats will not see the ice this winter that it will require some new stimulus to put the winter yachting sport here on its feet again. The officers of the Yacht club, Perry Fess commodore, Frank Johnston, vice commodore, and Russell Nelson, secretary and treasurer, will have charge of starting the winter races as soon as the ice is in good condition. It will take a light thaw to remove the snow on the lake, and a little more to put Lake Mendota in condition. Secretary Nelson of the club does not believe that Fourth lake will be usable until February, but he believes that ice-boating by club members and other yacht owners will continue shortly after Christmas.

The first ice-boating of the year was done yesterday by William Bernard's son, who took a skin over Mendota in the "White Cloud," a boat built by him. It was a fast boat. There was too much snow on the lake to make the boat safe and within a half-mile of the shore, the ice was in too rough a condition for good sailing.

This is the year that the Northwestern ice-racing association in scheduled to hold its annual races in Madison, but nothing has yet been heard from the northern and eastern yacht men.

CAMP GRANT SPORTS BRING GREAT PROFIT

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—The athletic funds of Camp Grant at Rockford, Ill. and Camp Custer at Battle Creek, Mich., each will be increased by $14,000 today. This represents each camp's share of the gate receipts of the recent Custer-Grant football game.

It was announced today that the net profit from the game was $34,834.00 but until it is determined whether tax will have to be paid only $22,000 will be divided. All expenses of the contests were covered by receipts from program advertising and sales.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RETAINS PLAYER LIMIT

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Retention of the twenty-five player limit and expansion of the usual spring training trips was decided upon at the closing session of the American league meeting here Thursday. The club owners cleared up these points in preparation for the joint meeting with the National league here tomorrow.

Summarized the important questions to be considered by the sixteen owners of the two leagues are:
The advisability of reducing the playing schedule to 160 games.
Devising a method of collecting the federal war tax.
Settlement of the financial obligations resulting from the federal league war.

Suggestion of a new division of the world series receipts.

BUDGET BEFORE COUNCIL MEET

With the city budget completed, the city council will follow its regular meeting tonight with a special session for the purpose of levying the taxes and special taxes for the coming year.

The salary ordinance will be submitted to the council tonight. Most of the departments have made increases and will become effective January 1 instead of April.

Although there was some agitation recently for a woman member of the school board it is probable that Carl E. Tanney and John Moran, whose terms expire, will be re-elected.

A successor to Mrs. Burr W. Jones, who has resigned as a member of the library board, will probably be chosen tonight.

John W. Groves will offer the Nolen property at State and North Fairchild streets for a city hall site. Some time ago the property was offered to Madison for $105,000. Groves now holds the contract for the sale of the tract. If the city prefers to buy only a right-of-way through the property it is understood that Mr. Groves stands willing to accede to the request.

CALL Y. M. C. A. FUNDS

To the Editor of the Capital Times: Instructions from the State Headquarters for the Army Y. M. C. A. Work asks the Madison Committee to collect all local subscriptions when due and then forward same to the State office in Milwaukee.

Checks should be made payable to H. F. Lindsey, Treasurer, and mailed to the Madison Y. M. C. A. Headquarters, 516 Gay Building. Those wishing to pay in cash should call at the office and a receipt will be issued. Part payment may also be made at any time.

In order to avoid expense involved in postage and letters, the Committee hopes that notices hereafter will not be necessary.

Y. M. C. A. War Fund Committee, Madison Wis., Dec. 5, 1917. The Madison Committee (District No. 9) comprises the following members: H. A. Moehlenpach, director, F. O. Leiser, secretary, George W. Davis, North Freedom, F. A. Chadbourne, Columbus; C. P. Norgard, Madison; George Kispert, Jefferson; Prof. Neveerman, Monroe; S. M. Smith, Janesville.

Johnny, Cake—Four cups white meal, one teaspoon salt, two tablespoons molasses, three cups butter-milk, two teaspoons soda, one egg, beat five minutes and bake one-half hour in two pans.

QUIZ CROZIER ON OUTPUT OF RIFLES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Statements regarding the prospective delivery of rifles, considered confidential by the war department, and other matters the witness declined to discuss publicly, were given today by Major General Crozier, chief of ordnance, at an executive session of the senate military committee's inquiry into alleged delays in supplying the army.

General Crozier's examination today went further into details of the rifle and machine gun situations. Several senators sharply questioned him in what were described as "somewhat heated" exchanges. Some of the members were said to be inclined to attribute to General Crozier himself responsibility for the reduction of 50 per cent in rifle production at private plants due to the change in type.

Failure to use appropriations for the purpose intended, was developed from General Crozier's testimony. In particular, an appropriation of $5,000,000 made in August, 1916, for small arms and intended by congress for rifles, General Crozier said, was used for pistols, some at high royalties from private contractors.

General Crozier reiterated that rifle production will increase so that no American troops sent abroad will be without surplus arms, and that soon there will be ample for training purposes.

After nearly four hours' questioning of General Crozier, Chairman Chamberlain said: "Generally the information given shows a reasonably satisfactory condition, considering the state of affairs at the beginning of the war."

Representative Pittman, one of the sponsors of the inquiry, said there was a surplus of big guns in the navy, whose construction might be stopped to use the machinery to produce for the army. Other suggestions of that sort will be looked into, he said. Representative Britton also said he proposed to urge creation of a supreme council of defense comprising not exceeding three men and preferably one man to handle the war in America and have arbitrary power to determine every question so as to avoid issues.

BIG POWER SHOW TO BE HELD HERE

Announced

TO PUSH PRODUCTION

Use of Gas Tractors to Multiply Cultivation Will be Taught

Because of the increased demand for power with which to speed the plow because of food production, the college of agriculture is announcing a special farm power course to be given Jan. 22 to Feb. 16.

Given by faculty members and trained representatives from the shops of leading farm machinery manufacturers, this course is expected to make a record in attendance and results.

Gas engines, trucks and tractors, together with some real inside dope from the mechanics who make them will help to equip the students with the best of workable ideas on this subject of increasing importance.

Over only to 50 men, the course will last for the four weeks and be under the direction of Frank M. White, manager of Wisconsin's first tractor demonstration.

SUES FOR DAMAGES ON ALLEGED CARELESS DRIVING

Alleging careless driving, Harry Gorman, is suing G. Schunk for damages, claimed to have been incurred when their autos collided on East Johnson street a year ago. Gorman is suing for $190.00. The trial of the suit will take two days.

DISPUTE WEARING OF UNION BUTTON

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 14.—Union labor leaders of Minneapolis and St. Paul are to insist on the right of union men to wear buttons signifying their membership when they present their side of the traction controversy before Secretary of Labor Wilson, and the federal board here Monday. This statement was made today prior to a meeting at which the unions' case will be prepared for presentation.

All industries affected by yesterday's three hour "general strike" reported full forces at work today. Street car service was maintained in the same percentage of the normal as has been the case most of the time since the controversy began.

Governor Burnquist refused today to comment further on developments nor on the telegram in which he informed Secretary Baker that the case could not be reopened, though he would welcome "informal investigation" by the federal board.

Robert Kelly and Louis Beardsley, both of Tomah, pleaded guilty in Federal court this morning to a charge of selling liquor to soldiers and were each fined $62.50 and cost.

W. A. Boschel, West Salem, admitted that he procured liquor for soldiers and paid a fine of $125.00 and costs.

BAN ON GRAIN
INTO ALCOHOL

Dutch Government Sends Notice to 200 Distilleries at Scheidam

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 14.—The 200 distilleries of Scheidam, which produce vast quantities of gin and other liquors, have been notified by the government's grain bureau, the Telegraaf reports, that after this week no more grain will be supplied for conversion into alcoholic products. This means the paralysis of one of the industries for which Holland is best known abroad. Thousands of men will be thrown out of employment.

BY YOUR XMAS CIGARS
At home, for the boys in the trenches, I am selling cigars put up in boxes of 10, 25, 50 and 100, for Christmas purposes. These cigars are made from pure imported and domestic tobacco and sold wholesale or retail at 111 King street. The 10c brands are Julius Caesar, (always good), La Pasa, Zedias, Edward, Tiffin; the 5c are Royal Honor, Cuban Tip, La Flor De Cuba, Bank Penny, Miss West and Sigmar. Jockey of tobacco and pipes, which can be bought direct at 111 King street.
George Wiesse, Manufacturer.

A LITTLE SLICE OF LIFE

The other day my kid was nosing around a toy store. He discovered a military tank toy. A perfect reproduction of the British machine. He came home and told me he would like it. If I would give him one for Christmas. He said they were only little tin things. The next day I promised him that he could have one. I stopped on my way home to buy it. They were very cute and I didn't blame the kid. I called the Ziegfeld beauty with the white nose. And asked: "How much for the tank?" "The smallest one is $16," she replied. "But we have some real good ones for $39.95." The $16 one was about a foot long. The only tank my kid will get will be the bathrub. Santa Claus is a gay deceiver.

Here is one of the two striking Christmas window displays that await you here. This store has the finest line of writing papers in the city. And few gifts are more welcome. Come and see us.

Here is the other Christmas display. It features the popular 3A Autographic Kodak (post card size); the dependable Kodak Film, and the Folding Autographic Brownie in the new 2C size. Our Kodak Department has many other gift suggestions.

EVERYTHING presented here for Christmas-giving is distinctive, good and acceptable. But of all the gifts—nothing is quite so universally acceptable and brings so much pleasure to the person who receives it, as a Kodak—the Christmas gift that is used throughout the year. Don't fail to visit us.

WARN AGAINST PROPAGANDA

Claim False Stories Flood Army Camps With Mail For Men

DO NOT SEND FOOD

Men Are Ample Supplied and Much Goes to Waste; Issue Statement

Washington, D. C., Dec. 13.—As a warning to the public to beware of published stories that men at the army training camps are unhappy, lonesome, without food and dejected, the war department, today made public a letter from Postmaster Wolfe at Chillicothe, Ohio, dealing with a specific case.

"Last week," wrote Postmaster Wolfe, "a syndicate set of newspapers published the story about (soldiers' name deleted). He was lonesome and had never received a piece of mail since being in camp. His picture went with the article and it made good reading."

"In yesterday's mail alone he received 1200 letters, nineteen special delivery letters and parcels and fifty-four ordinary parcels. It happens he can neither read nor write. Mr. Gregg made an examination and he found nineteen soldiers sitting about him helping him read the mail and they had lots of fun at the expense of sentimental women but got all the money and stamps enclosed."

"An interesting feature is that was not accepted by the army but he refused to leave. Other newspaper articles along the same line will simply swamp the camp offices."

Food Is Wasted
Postmaster Wolfe wrote that tons of food was wasted at the camp during the Thanksgiving period due to food shipments sent in by friends and relatives. His office handled an average of 2,000 bags of this mail a day for three days.

"Under no possible circumstances was the food needed," the letter says, "and of course tons of it went to waste. The same condition, only worse, will prevail at Christmas unless the public is warned not to send so much food."

FLYNN TO LEAD NATIONAL DRIVE

Chairman of Country-Wide Retailers' Membership Campaign

BIG DRIVE ON JAN. 15

National Retailers' Association Commend Work of Madison Dealer

George C. Flynn, president of the Cresson Clothing company, has consented to act as chairman for the country-wide campaign to secure members for the National Association of Retail Clothing. On January 15, this association will work to bring one thousand new members into the organization, and Mr. Flynn will head the workers for the big drive.

Under Mr. Flynn will be state directors. These men have all been selected by their associations for their ability and accomplishments and are directly responsible for the securing of new members in their units. A handsome cup will be donated by President Lynch to the state president who checks up the work of Mr. Flynn. The Retailers' Bulletin says: President Lynch has named George C. Flynn of Madison, Wis., as national chairman. Mr. Flynn is one of the best-known clothiers in the United States. He has been interested in the work for a number of years and was last year president of the Wisconsin association. There are for men who realize more than he the great benefit which the small and large clothing can obtain from the association."

DEFENSE COUNCIL IS ACTIVE HERE

W. N. Parker Reviews Its Work Since Organization; Many Volunteers

AIDED IN REGISTRATION

Billed Entire City to Assist in Campaign; Help Secure Labor

Securing work for the unemployed, helping the farmers to increase their crops, holding patriotic demonstrations in the towns of this county, rounding up the "slackers," are some of the things accomplished by the Dane County Council of Defense since its organization, May 1, 1917, according to Chairman W. N. Parker.

"The work of the Council," says Mr. Parker, "is divided among sub-committees, as that approximately 200 men and women have assisted in the patriotic activities. The owners of automobiles in the city formed a volunteer Automobile Flying Squad and furnished the use of the cars whenever necessary."

"The first active work of the Council," says Mr. Parker, was in connection with the registration of all men eligible for draft on June 5. A campaign of publicity was conducted throughout the county. Five thousand English and German posters and notices were scattered broadcast, letters were sent to the officers of every city, village and town in Dane county, and personal solicitors went about urging compliance with the law. As a result, less than half a dozen "slackers" have been discovered in the county.

The council also assisted in the promotion of the first liberty loan sale, by means of telephoning, sending around circular letters, furnishing speakers, and making personal appeals.

Formed Labor Bureau
A labor bureau was established in June at a time when there was a strike in the lumber market, both factory and farm, and a large number of applicants were given work on the farm. They made themselves useful in every way, from shoveling barley in the field to washing dishes in the kitchen.

The farmer was further helped by bulletins which were sent around, by the furnishing of seeds of the best kind.

With a life and drum corps, some good speakers, and many patriotic followers, the Patriotic Organizations committee invaded the trade centers of the county and brought home to the people the vital matters with which our country is concerned at this time, for the purpose of overcoming any possible anti-war sentiment. There has been a total attendance of about nine thousand citizens at these meetings."

Mr. Parker says, "assistance was also rendered the Department of Justice in checking up "slackers," pressuring anti-war activities and in other ways the nature of which prohibits a public discussion of them."

The women's part of the work of the Council is of very real importance. Representatives were appointed to have charge of the Red Cross work in every town and village, and especially to carry to each home in the county the importance of the conservation of food.

Through the efforts of the women, the City Market of Madison was brought to life, and proved very beneficial to the women of the city. Two curb markets in addition to the central one were also started.

ENLISTMENTS CLOSE FOR DRAFTED MEN

Opportunity for men of draft age to enlist ended today.

Hereafter any man between the ages of 18 and 31 will have to produce before the recruiting officer, a letter from the local draft board to the effect that he has not been called.

Recruiting at the naval and army stations here is good, report the men in charge; 200 men having been signed for the army in the last few weeks. Enlistments in the navy have been proportionately good.

At The Theatres

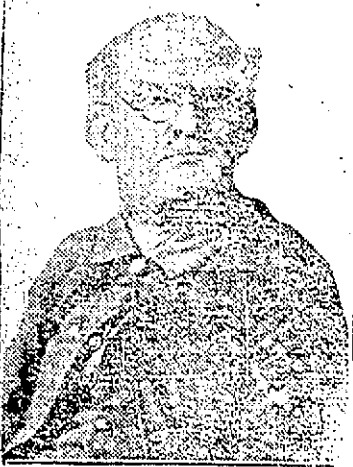

ORPHEUM

Alexander H. Baas, Madison baritone and dramatic reader, won enthusiastic approval from a large audience in his first appearance at the Orpheum theatre last evening.

The Mozart Club, of which Mr. Baas is an active member, attended in a body and cheered the singer repeatedly.

Mr. Baas' rendition of the Toreador song from Carmen was splendid while his interpretation of the musical number "On the Road to Mandalay" took the house by storm.

He will appear Friday, Saturday and Sunday prior to leaving on a special tour.

Foster Ball, now at the Orpheum

Foster Ball in a clever character study "Since the Days of '61" went big and was something decidedly new and distinct. He was assisted by Norman Cripps.

Ernest Evans and the girls offered a smart diversion of music, song and terpsichore, the exquisite dancing of Mr. Evans, Dubois and Deane proving especially popular.

A good comedy juggling act was staged by Willie Misseu & Co., while the Ellis-Nowlan companies "Sawdest Arena" was the closing of a highly entertaining bill.

FULLER

Born in Tokio, Japan, Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor, still considers the Land of the Cherry Blossoms as his home, but has lived for many years in the United States, having attended college at the University of Chicago where he met and married demure little Tsuru Aoki, his actress-wife. Mr. Hayakawa's latest photoplay, "The Secret Game," which is to be seen at the Fuller Theatre today and tomorrow is a story of a great Japanese secret service agent who was able to render to the United States a great service as well as saving the honor of his country, America's greatest ally.

As a special added attraction in addition to the above feature, "Our Boys at Camp Grant" a moving picture of the 30,000 men in training at Rockford taken especially for the Chicago Daily News Tobacco Fund for the soldiers, will be shown. Familiar faces will be seen going through their regular routine of work which consists of French attack, Bayonet practice, Drill Formation, Football, Boxing and all other athletic games.

BANDBOX

"The Understudy," a Falcon feature featuring Ethel Ritchie will be the attraction at the Bandbox to-night. It is a drama of social contrast and the happiness that crowded a girl's adventures.

MAJESTIC

Alma Robbins in the Triangle play "The Firefly of Tough Luck" is to-

Fuller, today and tomorrow
day's feature at the Majestic. "His Busy Day" will also be on the program.

GRAND

In "Outwitted," a Metro production starring Emily Stevens, the famous star is supported by a most capable cast. Earle Foxe, well known screen player, appears opposite the star in the role of Billy Bond. He has appeared in the productions of D. W. Griffith, the World, Kalem and Lasky companies. He has also been seen on the speaking stage in stock, appearing on Broadway with Wilson Lockery and Douglas Fairbanks in "The Cub" at the Grand to-night.

ASK $100,000 FOR NEW CONTINUATION SCHOOL

A resolution asking that $100,000 be appropriated by the council and used for a site for and the erection of a continuation school was presented by the board of industrial education at the meeting of the council finance committee last night.

A committee of three councilmen will probably be appointed to thresh out the matter before the formal presentation of the request to the council.

SEND PRESENTS TO WACO EARLY

Postmaster Writes to Governor Asking for Immediate Mailing

PROUD OF WISCONSIN

Arranges Direct Mail Cars to Camp McArthur to Give Quick Service

People should mail their Christmas packages early to the members of the Wisconsin troops at Waco, Texas, according to the appeal of C. B. McCollum, postmaster at Waco, in a letter to Acting Governor Edward F. Dittmar today. Governor Phillips urges strongly on the people of Wisconsin the importance of having these remembrances mailed at the very earliest possible moment. The boys are looking forward to it with a very great interest.

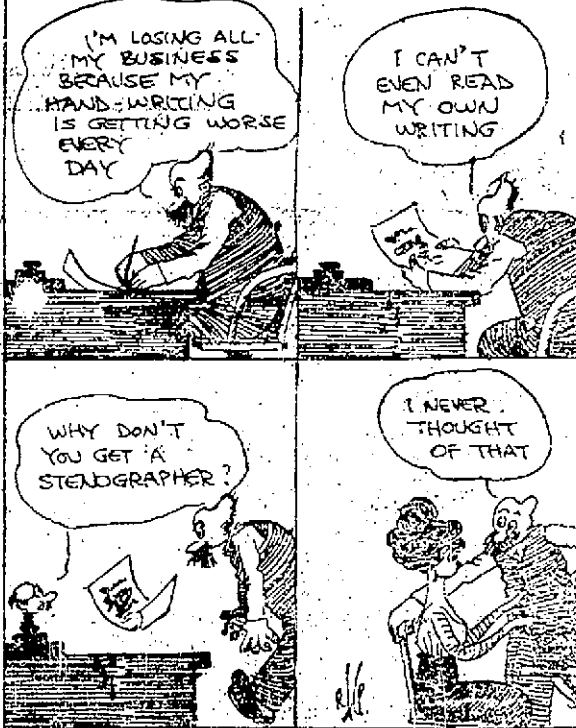

Postmaster McCollum called attention to the fact that under the post office regulations persons are permitted to write on the outside of the packages "Do Not Open Until Christmas" without payment of extra postage. "We are proud of the boys from Wisconsin and Michigan and we are going to do everything possible for them," said Postmaster McCollum. "It is our desire to render good service to all our patrons at all times, but for those heroes who are serving their country in the military establishment we believe they are entitled to the utmost in the best it is possible to render, as they are making the supreme sacrifice in the greatest cause anyone ever faced. Messages from home mean a great deal to them, and we desire to do our part in seeing these messages and remembrances reach them as they have a right to expect. We are arranging to run direct mail cars to Camp McArthur and plan for every contingency, so that we may earn words of approval and do our duty."

I NEVER THOUGHT OF THAT

the senior department embraces all who are over 15. Thus it is that upon visiting the school one sees little tots of 7 and 8 darting about through the halls along with girls of 17 and 18. Practically the entire school is composed of girls, only a few of the youngest of the pupils being boys.

Besides courses in English, Greek, Latin, French, Spanish, German, mathematics, science and history those at Edgewood have the advantage of a rate training in music, both vocal and instrumental. Twenty-six sisters comprise the faculty, under whose direction these various subjects are taught. On the third floor of the building an artistic studio and museum has been fitted up where pupils taking art courses may go to work and study.

Six in the morning finds the pupils up and ready to begin the day's work. By 8 they have had breakfast, attended mass, put their dormitories in order, and reported to their respective classes for the first recitation of the morning.

All vegetables served in the school dining room are raised on the grounds, and all the bread used is baked in the domestic science department. Courses in cooking are given to those girls who desire them.
